

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Sinclair Broadcasting is using a public media for which it did not pay and is using the media in a bias political manner. This is not what these licences were issued free of charge to broadcasters. They are supposed to be used in a fair and impartial manner. This is abusing a public trust. Sinclair should be held accountable for abusing this trust. Thank you Jesse Wasserman
